PIMLICO OPENING BRILLIANT

FAMOUS OLD COURSE AT BALTIMORE SCENE OF NOTABLE GATHERING.

Men Prominent in Affairs of the Nation Among Throng—Thomas Fortune Ryan's Colors Victorious in Juvenile Race.

Baltimore, Md., April 27.—Pimlico came into its old-time glory again this afternoon. It was really the opening of the eastern racing season and a brilliant gathering assembled to witness the sport. In the grandstand and boxes were people prominent in every walk of life. Society was well represented in the clubhouse. Among the throng were Capt. E. S. Cassatt, R. T. Wilson, August Belmont, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Algernon Daingerfield, Samuel Ross, W. P. Frazer of Toronto; Captain Sowenby, attache of the English embassy at Washington; Thomas Fortune Ryan, G. W. Stimson, Ral Parr, J. E. Davis, Frederick Johnson, Capt. W. F. Presgrave, Thomas Clyde, W. S. Diffenderffer, W. P. Riggs, W. M. Manley, Congressman Ollie James, Congressman William Hughes of New Jersey, postmaster of the house of representatives Sinnott, clerk of the house Trimble, and many other men prominent in national affairs.

Superintendent Brennan had the course in splendid condition and despite showers that fell last night and this morning, the track was fast. Weather conditions were against the sport, as the skies did not clear until after the running of the fifth race.

The program was made up of seven races, the features of which were the inaugural Steeplechase over the two-mile course, and the Country Club Purse, a dash of one mile and forty yards. Two two-year-old races were also carded and were won by juveniles that were making their first appearance in public. The first of the two-year-old races went to Thomas Fortune Ryan's Silver Moon, while William Garth furnished the winner of the other in Ral Parr's Lace, a filly by Fatherless—Network. Lace was the clockers' tip for the race and some were enthusiastic enough to predict that she would make a show of Robert Davies' good colt Liberty Hall. Lace made good by winning, but her victory was in a measure due to good racing luck. Liberty Hall met with much interference during the running, being pinned against the inner fence through the homestretch. The colt was coming strong and with a clear passage he probably would have beaten Lace.

Silver Moon won her race like a really good filly. She had an outside post position and was forced to work her way around to get to the front. She showed a keen turn of speed and the further they went the bigger the gap she opened. Her victory was clean cut and at the end she had a three-lengths' advantage. Silver Moon ran her half in one-fifth of a second faster than Lace. She is the first of the get of Ellisdale, a son of Watercress, to go to the post, and was bred by her owner, Thomas Fortune Ryan, at his farm in Virginia. She is an eligible for the Clabaugh Memorial, one of the big events of the meeting for two-year-olds. Trainer Carter rates her as a much better filly than Wondawhy was last season, which means that she comes pretty near being a first-class racer.

High Hat, with a record of three straight victories at Jamestown, was made favorite in the Inaugural Steeplechase and he made good by leading from start to finish. The race was a selling affair and when offered, he was bid from $600 to $900 by Larry Carey, agent for the Beverwyck Stable, and was sold to the latter.

The colors of R. T. Wilson were seen in front when Senex won the seventh race. He was ridden by jockey Willie Hopkins, who was reinstated by the Jockey Club only yesterday, and who will ride this season for Mr. Wilson.

William P. Frazer, secretary of the Ontario Jockey Club, came down from Toronto to be present at the opening. The stakes to be run during the coming spring meeting at Woodbine will close on Monday. There are a number of valuable events to which the entrance fee is small and Joseph McLennan, the club's representative here, reports that horsemen are entering liberally. Mr. Frazer will probably remain over until Monday before returning to Canada. The stakes for the Blue Bonnets meeting will also close on Monday and Mr. McLennan is likewise looking after the interests of the Montreal Club.

J. S. Tyree reports that his promising three-year-olds, Yorkshire Boy and Astrologer, have broken down, also that his promising two-year-old filly La Aurora, by McGee—Radiance, has gone wrong. The latter was an eligible for the Epsom Oaks and was highly tried last fall.

Edward McBride today sold Detect to A. C. Bellow and the colt will be shipped to Canada to race on the half-mile courses.

James Fitzsimmons is negotiating for the services of jockey Whatley, a lad that showed promise in the saddle at Jamestown.

Jockey C. White, a boy that rode on the half-mile tracks in Canada last season, will do the riding for the Belmont stable this season.

Thirty-five layers were in line at Pimlico this afternoon.

MOVE AGAINST THE HANDBOOKS.

Kentucky Racing Commission Plans to Employ Detectives to Keep Information from Them.

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission, with Vice-chairman Milton Young presiding in the place of Col. E. F. Clay, who was too ill at his home near Paris to come to Lexington, met here today. Messrs. Johnson N. Camden and Maj. F. A. Daingerfield were the other members present, Mr. George J. Long having been detained at Louisville by the pressure of other business.

The New Louisville Jockey Club was awarded the second renewal of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes of four miles to be run next fall, General Manager Matt J. Winn having made a written offer to add the magnificent sum of $7,500. The commission will add a gold cup, value $1,000. The commission will announce later the conditions of the race, the weights to be carried, the time of closing entries and the amount of payments to be made.

W. H. Laudeman, of this city, one of the best posted and most highly regarded men of the turf in this country, was appointed by the commission to oversee the pari-mutuel betting. He is to be paid by the racing associations $20 per day for his services.

The commision refused to modify its ruling prohibiting telegraph or telephone wires or instruments within the racing grounds and it took a more drastic step for the prevention of the dissemination of information to poolrooms and handbooks when it ordered: "That for each race meeting held by associations licensed by the Kentucky State Racing Commission, the secretary shall appoint (and supply with season tickets for the meeting, which tickets shall be purchased by himself with funds of the commission) two plain clothes men whose identity shall not be divulged until the close of such race meeting, whose duty it shall be to attend on each and every day of such meeting, to investigate and ascertain by what means information in advance of the running of any race is transmitted out of the grounds of such track and racing enclosure, and all other violations of law or racing rules, which may be detected by them, and to report to the secretary for the use of this commission in order that the offenders may be arrested and punished. The pay for such detectives not to exceed $50 per diem, the account for such service to be approved and certified by the secretary and paid by the racing association at which the service is rendered, together with the refunding of the sum paid for the season tickets for such detectives. The failure or refusal of any racing association to pay such charge when duly certified by the secretary shall operate for the forfeiture of the license of such association." This rule, intended to do away with the practice of handbookmaking on the grounds and for the detection of which it is to be a part of the duty of the plain clothes men, was adopted:

"Any one guilty of making a handbook on the grounds of any racing association licensed by this commission, during any race meeting thereof, shall be ejected from the grounds and denied admission thereto, as shall any owner, trainer or jockey, or other person interested in any horse or horses at said race meeting who shall be guilty of betting with or through any such handbook. Such offenders shall be ejected from the grounds, fined or suspended and the license of such persons who are licensed by this commission shall be revoked."

J. W. May caled the attention of the commission to the fact that jockey Tommie McTaggart had failed to report to him and charges were preferred against the rider by Mr. May. The secretary's report to the press does not show what action was taken.

Fred A. Forsythe's suggestion for changes in the rule governing selling races, whereby none of the run-up money is to go to the association, but requiring that such portion as the association formerly received shall be returned to the horsemen in the form of added money to purses, eliminating the claiming clause and holding the auctions in the paddock, came up in form of a resolution and will lie over until the next meeting.

An amendment to Rule 107 D to make it read: "A boy who has never ridden a winner on a recognized track or at a recognized meeting, shall be granted an apprentice license," etc., was offered and will lie over for thirty days.

Col. Milton Young was named as the steward to represent the commission at the Lexington meeting and Major Daingerfield was appointed to serve in the same capacity at Louisville and Latonia.

The folowing officials for the three spring meetings for which dates were granted last month, were approved.

Lexington—Capt. Thomas Clay; presiding judge; W. H. Shelley and G. D. Wilson, associate judges; W. H. Shelley, racing secretary; Mars Cassidy, starter; W. H. Shelley, handicapper; John Rodegap, timer, and James T. Shannon, veterinary.

Louisville—Charles F. Price, presiding judge; Charles F. Grainger, associate judge; Lyman H. Davis, secretary and handicapper; Mars Cassidy, starter; Dr. C. Cann, veterinary.

Latonia—Charles F. Price, presiding judge; John B. Dillon, associate judge; E. W. Maginn, secretary and handicapper; J. B. Campbell, clerk of the course; Mars Cassidy, starter, and George Lindenberger, timer. The veterinary for Latonia is to be submitted later. Dr. J. O. Phelps, the local veterinary dentist, was on the lists of both the New Louisville and Latonia Jockey Clubs for appointment as veterinary, but the fact that is not a practitioner of veterinary medicine and surgery caused the commision to disapprove of his appointment.

The following were granted licenses:

DERBY REGARDED AS AN OPEN RACE.

Sentiment By No Means Confined to One Horse—Something of Prominent Candidates.

Louisville, Ky., April 27.—With the thirty-eighth consecutive Kentucky Derby only two weeks away, there is good reason to believe that ten, possibly twelve, of the best three-year-olds in America will strive for the richest prize of the turf in this country.

As the time for the running of the race draws near the fact stands forth that it is as uncertain an event as was this great race just twenty-seven years ago, when Capt. J. T. Williams' Joe Cotton defeated Bersan, the "horned" horse; the noted Ten Booker, the brilliant Troubadour and the famous Favor.

The Kentucky Derby this spring is similar in many respects to the season in which it was won by Joe Cotton. Maj. T. C. McDowell's The Manager, a colt of rare promise, is thought by his admirers to be a certain Derby winner. It is claimed that the only race lost by him last season was over a heavy course, and upon other occasions when he raced, in going to his fancy, he won off as his rider pleased. His record as a two-year-old does look alluring, as four wins in five starts sounds well. The Manager has been trained in preparation for the Derby at Douglas Park. Up to the time of his shipment last Wednesday to Lexington he had met every requirement of his owner and trainer.

Many fancy the chances of The Manager in the Derby as he comes from a family which has produced three Kentucky Derby winners in Riley, Azra and Ben Brush, but the rank and file of the turf are swearing allegiance to H. C. Hallenbeck's $10,000 colt, Worth, which has wintered at Aiken, S. C., and received his preparation where the late J. W. Rogers fitted Gun Fire and Irish Lad for their memorable campaigns in 1903. These racers were taken north from the same place where Worth has been quartered. Gun Fire captured the Metropolitan Handicap, in the Brooklyn Handicap Irish Lad won, with Gun Fire second.

The two-year-old record of Worth is as sparkling as that of any colt that has been trained for the Kentucky Derby since it was first run in 1875. Worth won ten races in thirteen starts. He was the largest money-winning horse in 1911 on the American turf, with $16,645 to his credit. Worth has blood worthy of a Derby favorite in his veins, since he comes from the family which produced the good three-year-old Cash Day, which, at that age, won the Oakwood Handicap, at Washington Park, Chicago, in 1894, defeating that day the celebrated Ray S., for which the late millionaire Charles F. Fleischmann of Cincinnati paid $12,500.

The third dam of Worth is by Ozark, a three-year-old that once defeated Aristides, the first Kentucky Derby winner. Ozark was a son of Pat Malloy and out of Sunny South, the dam of Harry O'Fallon, which sired the celebrated three-year-old Terra Cotta. The three-year-olds in the family of Worth were all sturdy and hardy stayers.

Sonada, in spite of his defeats at Charleston, and as a result of his brilliant work at Lexington last Wednesday, has again come into prominence as a dangerous Derby factor. The Charleston contingent believe that Sonada's races on the South Carolina track do not reflect his true form. Sonada raced only four times as a two-year-old. He won twice and was out of the money once. On form, he shows up well. There is no objection whatever to his breeding. His dam was a daughter of the great Wadsworth, one of the most brilliant three-year-olds the western turf has known. Wadsworth's race in the $20,000 Garfield Park Derby was as wonderful as any run by a three-year-old in this country. On a track almost knee-deep in mud Wadsworth was last, three-quarters of a mile from the finish. A dozen horses were in front of him, some of them staggering. With unflinching gameness Wadsworth overcame his disadvantage and, in the closing strides, brought the great Yo Tambien to the hardest kind of a drive to beat him. Old-time horsemen even now talk of Wadsworth's exhibition that day.

During the past week at the Downs a "dark horse" has developed as a menace to the Derby cracks. This reference is to Henderson & Hogan's Guaranola, which, on Wednesday, worked the best mile any Derby candidate, with the exception of Sonada, has shown so far. Guaranola covered the distance in 1:41⅖. He was by no means all out. Guaranola was given his early preparation for the Kentucky Derby at Juarez, Mex., where he won his last start. He has improved a great deal since his arrival at the Downs, and there are several smart horsemen who would not be surprised should he win. Guaranola is by the sire of Governor Gray, Garry Herrmann. He is a half-brother of that good mare The Lady Rohesia, their dam being The Governess, by imported Gleneld. The next dam is Penny by Jerome Edger. Penny was the dam of Gouverneur and Prince Karl, winners of many races. From Penny on Guaranola is entirely English bred.

Trainer William Hurley, who has C. J. Casey's Cracker Box at Churchill Downs, says that Cracker Box will surely be a starter in the Derby. This colt is second to none in the big race when it comes to pedigree. He is a brother of the good mare Crossover, being by Octagon—Lucy Cross, by the unbeaten St. Simon. Octagon is the sire of Beldame. Lucy Cross, one of the highest-priced English-bred mares ever imported into this country, was purchased by August Belmont at a cost of $18,500 at auction.

Local followers of the turf would have no regret should George J. Long capture the Derby this spring with his much-improved colt, Free Lance. Every work has shown that this son of Alvescot is constantly improving. Free Lance is out of Merry Heart, by imported Sir Modred. He is a half-brother to Lady Toddington, and his second dam is Blithesome, by Onondaga, she being out of the famous mare, Beatitude. Mr. Long has figured extensively in the history of the Kentucky Derby. He has won it with Azra and Sir Huon.

Wheelwright is regarded by the followers of the stable of J. N. Camden as another that should be reckoned with in the Derby. He is trained by J. O. Keene, who some years since, while training in Russia, won all the Derbys in the domain of the Czar with the Russian-bred colt, Irish Lad. Wheelwright is a son of Mazagan and My Beauty.

The two most likely maidens in the Derby are Patruche and Chief Lindsey. Both of these colts are training on at the Downs. It is by no means improbable that one or both will go to the post.

R. F. Carman is to try out Sherlock Holmes early next week at the Downs to determine his real caliber. He is a son of Inflexible and was a winner last year. It was reported last winter that Sherlock Holmes had died, but it develops that it was his stable companion, Dr. Watson.

The two fillies in the race looked upon as possible starters are Flamma, owned by T. R. Condran, and Ursula Emma, owned by the Louisville turfman, Louis P. Doerhoefer. Both of these fillies raced well as two-year-olds, but the unbroken failures of their sex in the Derby may keep their owners from starting them. No filly has won the Kentucky Derby.

W. F. Schulte has four yearlings at Argyle Farm this season, three being fillies and one a colt. The colt is by Sempronius—Gliding By, the dam of Gliding Belle.

Former jockey John Gardner, who rode for years for Eugene Leigh, now in France, arrived today.

W. H. Baker came from Charleston today with four horses. They are Feather Duster, Ella Bryson, Limpet and Husky Lad.

KENTUCKY RACING BEGINS

LEXINGTON MEETING IS OPENED UNDER CONDITIONS THAT PROMISE WELL.

The Unbeaten Hawthorn Continues His Victorious Career—Mockler Wins Stake Race—Christmas Star Takes Race for Two-Year-Old Fillies.

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—Racing in Kentucky for the season of 1912 was ushered in today under conditions that augur favorably for the sport. The inclement weather of yesterday was succeeded this morning by bright sunshine and was a potent factor in causing the presence of a generous attendance. Track conditions were bad, but improved steadily as the afternoon progressed and if no more rain falls the track will be in normal condition for Monday's racing.

Track conditions considered, today's sport was spirited and exciting, though it brought with it many unexpected happenings and jolted those with a liking for short priced starters. In this respect Caugh Hill was probably the most serious offender, but his failure was not altogether due to himself. Carroll Shilling, his rider, having his first mount in many months, made an amateurish showing that contributed largely to the horse's failure.

Interest in the meeting of Hawthorn and Rosturtium in the second race and Christmas Star and Inquieta in the fifth was keen among the horsemen. There seemed to be a sort of sectional feeling. Hawthorn and Inquieta have been campaigned at Juarez this winter and are the outstanding cracks of each sex. Christmas Star is undisputedly the best filly developed at Charleston. Rosturtium, while rated a good colt, was by no means the top-notcher there, but was thought able to give Hawthorn a stubborn battle. The latter made a show of the Charleston colt and won as his rider pleased. Christmas Star was the handiest winner of the afternoon.

The Phoenix Hotel Spring Handicap was a good contest, with Mockler the winner over Any Port. The disappointment of the race was Princess Callaway, which showed to poor advantage throughout.

The crack Worth was on the track between the races and was cantered in company with several of his stable mates. Worth attracted a good deal of attention and appears in fine health, but some of the horsemen are somewhat chary as to his being sufficiently advanced in training to stand a contest such as the Kentucky Derby will entail. Other Derby eligibles on the course during the day included Duval, Sonada, The Manager and Guaranola. The Manager cantered a mile in 1:56 and Guaranola was worked a mile in 1:51⅖.

George Odom stated today that he would have to let up on Sumptuous until fall on account of an injury sustained in her last start.

John Griffin II, the veteran campaigner, will possibly not be raced again, as he appeared in a bad way after the running of the first race, in which he broke down.

Speculation today was considerably in excess of last season's opening day and established a record for an opening day here. Nearly every prominent horseman hereabouts was at the course.

General Manager Matt J. Winn stated today that he was undecided as to the continuation of the mutuel combination betting at Churchill Downs and will probably abolish it.

C. R. Ellison arrived today from West Baden where he has been sojourning since the close of the Charleston meeting.

H. C. Hallenbeck was an arrival from New York.

Harry Morrissey was today offered an engagement to do the starting at Oklahoma City for the meeting beginning there in June. Mr. Morrissey will accept the offer conditionally that he can fill his dates at Butte, Salt Lake and Anaconda. Mr. Morrissey's starting today was good and he wasted little time at the post in any of the races.

A member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission said tonight that the running of the first Kentucky Endurance Stakes at Churchill Downs last fall (the winner of which was the three-year-old Messenger Boy) developed that there is something wrong with the scale of weights for four miles, and that the commission has decided to make a readjustment and would be glad to have the opinions of all horsemen in writing that it may get the benefit of a consensus of opinion. It appears that under the present scale a three-year-old in October has considerably the advantage of the older horses in the allotment. At that time of the year, a three-year-old is really as good as he will ever be afterward, it is held.

COEUR D'ALENE OPENING AUSPICIOUS.

Greatest Gathering in History of Racing in Northwest Visits Course at Alan.

Spokane, Wash., April 27.—The largest crowd that ever attended a race meeting in this part of the country was present today at the opening of the beautiful Alan course for the season, the elite of Spokane and Coeur d'Alene being well represented. Starter Dwyer was in rare form and dispatched his fields to good starts during the afternoon.

The Opening Handicap, the feature event of the day, brought together eleven of the best sprinters here. Enfield and Kootenay, coupled in the betting, ruled as the favorites. Pawhuska was returned the winner. He dashed to the front early and gamely stood a drive at the end.

Tawasentha, owned by J. McGovern, died this morning. She was a fast mare.

Over a hundred people came from Vancouver, Victoria, Salt Lake, Seattle and Portland. While there are a great number of bookmakers on the ground only ten lined up for the first cut-in.

PLANS FOR HOT SPRINGS RACING.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 27.—Petitions through the initiative and referndum for a change in the law which will permit horse racing in Garland County under restrictive conditions are being circulated in Hot Springs and more than 500 signatures of representative business men and taxpayers have been secured.

The pari-mutuels only are to be permitted. The racing is to be governed, under the provisions of the bill, by a racing commission of five members to be appointed by the county judge.

The bill permits racing on dates allotted by the commission, on any authorized mile course in Garland County. The commission may grant or refuse dates, and may specify at what time of the year racing shall take place and when it shall not.

It is the purpose, under the proposed measure, to have racing open with the State Fair and continue in November, when some attraction is needed to bring the people here before the holiday season, and then dates are anticipated again late in the season when it is necessary to have some added attraction to hold the crowds after they are here. Business men generally are behind the movement.

OAKS RACING IN KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., April 27.—There is a race scheduled as the feature for next Wednesday at Lexington which, in some way, has been generally overlooked and still it is of importance. It is the revival of the famous Ashland Oaks for three-year-old fillies, and will have a bearing on the Kentucky Oaks at the Downs on the last day of the coming spring meeting.

The Ashland Oaks was discontinued in the spring of 1897. It was won in 1896 by the famous mare, Myrtle Harkness, with Bracegirdle, the dam of T. C. McDowell's crack Derby candidate, The Manager, second. Myrtle Harkness was beaten that year in the Kentucky Oaks by the famous Souffle, which won also the Latonia Oaks that season.

The Ashland Oaks was established in 1879, four years after the inaugural Kentucky Oaks was run. The Lexington race was first won by Peru, which later became the dam of the famous Dry Monopole, winner of the first Brooklyn Handicap. Liahtunah won the Kentucky Oaks that season, Peru running unplaced. The next winner of the Ashland Oaks was Lavacca and she also failed in the Louisville race. Longitude winning the Kentucky Oaks that season. In 1881 the noted Lucy May won the Ashland Oaks, beating those two good fillies Lizzie S. and Lida Stanhope, and Lucy May was the first double winner of the Ashland and Kentucky Oaks. In 1882 Issie won the Lexington race with the noted Belle of Runnymede second and that season the Louisville event was won by Katie Creel.

Vera, then owned by R. C. Pate, who afterwards became noted in the first attempt to introduce racing at Mexico City, won both the Ashland Oaks and the Kentucky Oaks, and the late B. G. Thomas won the race in 1884 with Hiflight and this is the year in which Modesty, the only filly that ever won the American Derby, was winner of the Kentucky Oaks. Ed Corrigan won the Lexington race in 1885 with Ida Hope and he also captured the Kentucky Oaks that season with Ida Hope's stable companion, Lizzie Dwyer. In 1886 Pure Rye and Mary Ann ran a dead heat in the Ashland Oaks and the stake was divided. They met again in the Kentucky Oaks, Pure Rye winning and Mary Ann running unplaced. In 1887 Florimore won both the Kentucky and the Ashland Oaks. This was the season the Latonia Oaks was inaugurated and went to F. B. Harper's Unite. In 1888 Hypocrite won the Ashland Oaks and the Kentucky Oaks fell that season to Ten Penny and Mr. Harper won the Latonia Oaks again with Lavinia Belle. In 1889 Jewel Ban, owned by Maj. B. G. Thomas, won both the Ashland and Kentucky Oaks and Retrieve, which belonged to Labold Bros., owners of Montrose, the Kentucky Derby winner of 1887, won the Latonia race. In 1890 Camilla won the Ashland Oaks and the great English Lady won the Kentucky and Latonia races, being the first filly to win this double event. In 1891, Ethel, owned by E. Corrigan, won the Ashland Oaks, but was beaten in the Kentucky Oaks by Miss Hawkins. The Latonia race that year fell to the famous Ida Pickwick. In 1892 the Ashland Oaks was won by Unadilla, while Miss Dixie won the Kentucky Oaks and Lake Breeze the Latonia Oaks. In 1893 Monrovia, trained by the noted Brown Dick, who developed the Kentucky Derby winner, Ben Brush, won both the Ashland and Kentucky Oaks, while Dare Vela took the Latonia race. In 1894 Queenlike II., the dam of T. C. McDowell's famous mare, King's Daughter, won the Ashland Oaks, but was beaten in the Kentucky Oaks by George J. Long's Selika, while the Latonia race that season was won by Orinda. The Ashland Oaks of 1895 was won by Hessie and that season Valadora won the Kentucky Oaks and Leaflet captured the Latonia race. The Latonia Oaks was discontinued in 1909, but the Kentucky Oaks has enjoyed an unbroken history and is as old as the Kentucky Derby. Except the Alabama Stakes, Saratoga, first run in 1872; the Ladies Stakes, inaugurated in 1868, and the Hunter Stakes, first run in 1869, the Kentucky Oaks has a longer history than any filly race in the annals of American racing. It bids fair now to go on and on and in the long years to come may some day have a history of as many years as marks the great English race at Epsom Downs for which it is named. The Epsom Oaks was inaugurated in 1779, and is still the filly feature of the British turf.

TRAINING GALLOPS AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 27.—The local tracks, and especially Churchill Downs, were in good condition this morning, considering the heavy downpour of yesterday. The only Derby candidate that was worked was George J. Long's Free Lance, which cantered seven furlongs in 1:39. Trainer P. Coyne, who has charge of the Long stable, decided at the last moment not to send any of the string to Lexington. Four of his two-year-olds engaged there are slightly bucked and he concluded he would not give either Free Lance or Nicias a race before the Derby.

Other work-outs were:
Capitan Bravo—Five-eighths in 1:15.
Cash on Delivery—Five-eighths in 1:15.
Fireman—Quarter mile in 29⅘, cantering.
Island Queen—Three-quarters in 1:25.
Jacob Bunn—Three-eighths in 44.
King Olympian—Five-eighths in 1:12⅘.
Mobile Belle—Three-eighths in 44.
O'Sullivan—Half mile in 55⅘.
Pass On—Three-eighths in 44.
Presumption—Three-quarters in 1:29, cantering.
Sebago—Three-eighths in 41⅘.
The Reach—Half mile in 57, cantering.
White Wool—Three-quarters in 1:25.

The slow condition of the tracks did not prevent trainers from freely working their horses, and with the exception of on the turn near the club house, it had dried out greatly by noon and will be fairly fast tomorrow.

"Tex" Foreman was an arrival today and reports that C. H. Knebelkamp's three-year-old filly Motherkins, is out of the Kentucky Oaks. He sold this filly at Charleston, on ascertaining she was not of Oaks caliber. The only horse this stable now owns is Attentive, which is still at Latonia, where she wintered. He thinks she will be a good racer this year, but she may not start before the Latonia meeting.

O. A. Bianchi received a letter today from California telling him of two fine foals he now has there by Jim Gaffney, a horse he now has here in the stud. One of the youngsters is out of Resignation II., and the other out of Viola B. The letters inform Mr. Bianchi that the Resignation II. colt now stands twelve hands high and the Viola B. colt eleven and a half hands. For sucklings this is considered remarkable, as there have been cases of horses that later raced in stake winning form that as yearlings did not stand as high as the Resignation II. colt does as a suckling.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses of J. W. Fuller, twelve in number, have arrived at the Woodbine track, Toronto, from Texas.

The stallion Chilton has been transferred to Pennsylvania from Maryland, where he has been standing with success.

R. W. Walden thinks well of his Chilton two-year-olds, one of which, Chilton King, is a brother to the speedy Chilton Queen.

Among the steeplechase riders to be seen at Pimlico are W. Allen, Kermath, Donohue, Tucker, Heider, Wilson, Bowser and Noe. Tommy Wright will pilot the Ivan Fox jumpers.

Fred Littlefield has arrived at Pimlico with the two-year-old colt Chuckles, by Chilton—Charite, which he hopes may turn out to be another Jubilee. The latter has been retired for good.

Harry Payne Whitney's two-year-old gelding, by Broomstick—Heart's Desire, won the Juvenile Plate at Sandown Park in England, Friday. James R. Keene's three-year-old, Castleton, by Peter Pan—Mintcake, won the Mt. Felix Plate.

The Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association management is building seventy-five more stalls to relieve the congestion at Alan. Recent arrivals at Alan include Logan Denny from California with ten horses and Al Coney with two carloads of horses belonging to Edwin Gaylord of Denver, for whom R. C. Benson is now training. Amon is the star of the Gaylord string.

V. M. P., Lexington, Ky. Sysonby died from blood poisoning June 17, 1906, and was then a four-year-old. De Mund made his first start in a race at Aqueduct April 16, 1906.

A. P., Chicago. A place parlay on Gun Cotton and Kormak April 25, won as a single place bet on Kormak, being void as to Gun Cotton because there was no separate place price against him.

B. J. S., Chicago. Carbine is dead. He raced nobly in Australia and won the Melbourne Cup of 1890, under 145 pounds, the two miles in 3:28¼, the record for the race up to that date. That record has been twice beaten and once equaled since.

L. K., Cincinnati, O. May 8, 1909, at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., six track records were broken in six races by Enfield, six and a half furlongs, 1:05¾; Turf Star, half mile, 47⅕; Jeff Bernstein, three-quarters of a mile, 1:11⅖; Miami, one and one-sixteenth miles, 1:45⅕; Joe Morris, four and a half furlongs, 52⅖, and Belleview, one and one-quarter miles, 2:06⅕.

Winner—B. g, by Garry Herrmann—Penury (trained by E. Phelon).

Went to post at 2:56. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. WARBLER followed the pacemakers closely to the stretch turn, where he moved up rapidly and easily disposed of BLACK CHIEF in the last furlong. The latter, probably a little short, showed great speed, but was much used in racing BEAU CHILTON into defeat in the first half mile and tired in the stretch. MISS NETT closed a big gap and finished with a rush. SERVICENCE ran well and finished close up and so did HERBERT TURNER. BEAU CHILTON was speedy, but ran as if short.

SAND VALE began well and ran in closest pursuit from the start, but tired and just lasted long enough to outstay MARY SCRIBE after making a wide turn into the homestretch. MARY SCRIBE saved ground all the way and finished fast and gamely. MICCOSUKEE and SMASH were both cut off at the start. LITTLE HUGH ran well. STAR GAZE finished fast.
